The Securities market regulator- Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) wide its notification issued on 2nd September, 2015 has repealed the clauses under Listing Agreement entered into by the Companies with the Stock Exchange(s) and has put in place Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 to come into force from the 90th day from the date of publication in the Official Gazette (i.e. from 1st December, 2015).

Preamble:

This policy attempts to preserve and maintain records of the organisation. During the course of business, the Company generates several records either in physical or in electronic modes, most of the records are useful for a shorter span of time, hence such records are kept for a definite period of time, but some records may be needed to be kept permanently during the lifetime of the organisation. In order to preserve such records, the Company needs to implement a well-considered, well-documented plan in order to ensure that they remain trustworthy and useful over a period of time.

Purpose of the policy:

The purpose of this policy is to establish the framework needed for effective management of the records at the Company and also set principles for underlying the Company's approach to preservation of its records. In order to efficiently conduct its business, the storage, retrieval and management of these information reserves of the Company is a significant issue.

A good record keeping program is fundamental to the Company's commitment to administrative transparency and accountability. It enables the Company to account for decisions and actions by providing essential evidence in the form of records and ensures the preservation of the collective memory of the Company.

The Company is concerned with all aspects of its record keeping independent of the technological medium. This policy seeks to ensure that the Company's business is adequately documented through the creation of records that are then managed in accordance with best practice.

Preservation of records is the responsibility of all staff & users of archives and records of the Company. Responsibility is to ensure the continuous availability and authenticity of the records.

Scope:

This policy is applicable to the Company and all the departments in the Company. The policy ensures that the Company maintains both electronic and paper documents which are bound by the legislative requirements and are subject to the same degree of confidentiality and care. Therefore the records must be kept keeping in mind the confidentiality and nature of the document

Definitions:

“Preservation” is maintenance of documents, files and records in usable form.

“Records” means recording of information in any form including data in computer systems, created or retrieved and maintained by an organisation or person in the transaction of business or the conduct of affairs and kept as evidence of such activity.

“Record Keeping” means making and maintaining complete, accurate and reliable evidence of business transactions in the form of recorded information.

“Company” means Hathway Bhawani Cabletel & Datacom Limited

“Board of Directors” or “Board” means the Board of Directors of Hathway Bhawani Cabletel & Datacom Limited, as constituted from time to time.

“Policy” means policy on Preservation of records.

“Storage Options” means

Online storage: Records are kept on a server or hard drive and are immediately available for use over a network. This option is best for records that must be accessed frequently.

Near-line storage: Records are stored on media such as optical disks in jukeboxes or tapes in automated libraries which are attached to a network. Because retrieval is slower than with online storage, this option is most appropriate for records that are accessed occasionally.

Offline storage: Records are stored on removable media and must be manually retrieved. This option provides the slowest access and should be used for records that are only rarely needed.

“Listing Regulations” means the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.
